Tom Ruff Company Expands to Dallas

DALLAS – January 15, 2007 – Tom Ruff Company, one of the country's top firms specializing in recruiting medical device and pharmaceutical sales and sales management personnel, has opened an office in Dallas, Texas. With existing offices in Los Angeles, San Francisco and New York, the opening of the Dallas office will allow Tom Ruff Company to focus on delivering detail-oriented, highly personalized service to clients and candidates in the country's central region.

"Our success is a direct result of our attention to the individual needs of our clients and candidates. We strive not only to unite top companies with top talent, but to create a lasting, mutually beneficial partnership between them," President & CEO Tom Ruff said. "We're excited about expanding to Dallas and the surrounding area."

A preferred recruiter for more than one hundred of the largest pharmaceutical and medical device companies in the country, Tom Ruff Company is broadening its practice to place more high-level candidates as regional sales directors and regional sales managers, while offering the same highly personalized service and attention to detail that the company is known for in placing sales representatives.

"Whether we are helping a client fill a position or placing a candidate, we understand the importance of the process for both parties," Ruff said. "We remain committed to delivering first-class service to both."

Executive Recruiter Sidney Bateman will lead the new Dallas office, which is located at 100 Crescent Court, Suite 700, Dallas, TX, 75201. The new phone number is 214-742-9700. Please visit our website at www.tomruff.com.
